

Welcome to our 2022 and 2023 Bi-Annual Report

2022 and 2023 were record years of growth and mission-driven impact. Our fund grew to $25.4 million in total assets—over 50% growth in the past five years. Our annual lending increased 90% in 2022 to $7.4 million and nearly doubled again in 2023 to $13.2 million. All told, we invested over $20.5 million in cooperatives over the biennium.

Throughout this growth, we maintained high mission-focus. Over 93% of our financing dollars during the two years was invested in co-ops owned by people of color, women, LGBTQ and low-income communities, with this percentage reaching 98% for 2023. For the two years, over 38% went to co-ops owned by Black, Latinx, and people of color, with this percentage reaching 40% for 2023. Our financing supported the creation and maintenance of more than 550 units of affordable cooperative housing and more than 1175 jobs during this period.

In 2023, the board of directors developed a Racial and Economic Justice Statement and policy. The statement, which is posted on our website, communicates our shared commitment to advancing racial, social and economic equity and justice through our work. Our policy directs us to go deeper as we continue to challenge the tenets of our financial system that have systematically excluded so many from access to resources and created and perpetuated inequities.

Pilsen Housing Co-op (PIHCO) Chicago, Illinois

In late 2022, Shared Capital provided a loan for $850,000 to the Pilsen Housing Cooperative, also known as PIHCO, which is a majority Latinxowned, limited equity housing cooperative in the Pilsen neighborhood of Chicago. The historically Latinx community has faced rapid gentrification and PIHCO was formed by local residents to preserve affordability. In February of 2020, Shared Capital made a small $85,000 loan to the start-up group to support financing for the acquisition and rehab of their first property. In November 2022, Shared Capital provided a $850,000 to support the acquisition and rehab of a second property by the co-op.

Washington Hmong Farmers Cooperative Snohomish, Washington

In February 2023, Shared Capital made a $150,000 loan to the Washington Hmong Farmers Cooperative, a collective of fourteen Hmong vegetable and flower growers who have been selling their products at Pike Place Market and the region's farmers markets since 1982. The co-op was created to increase access to new markets and buyers. The group received grants from the USDA and the Washington state department of agriculture to purchase a delivery truck, coolers, dryers and other equipment that will be shared among the cooperative members. The loan was needed to finance the purchases in order to receive reimbursement from the government grants.

Open Harvest Food Co-op Lincoln, Nebraska

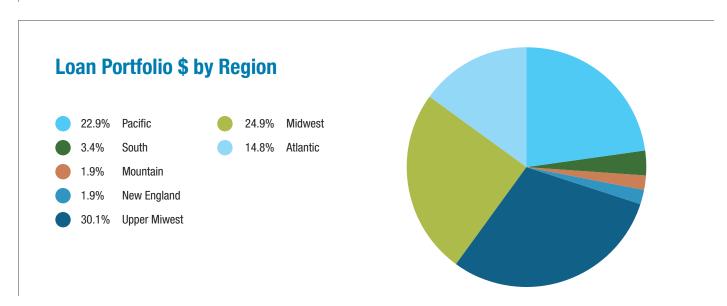

Open Harvest contacted Shared Capital when their lease was up and was not being renewed. Funds were needed for the move and also to explore a growth opportunity for Lincoln, Nebraska's only co-op grocery store. Open Harvest, which started as a buying club in 1971, borrowed $1.6 million—retaining 28 jobs, increasing retail space by 42%, and bringing in a phenomenal 600 new member sign ups this year. "The new store is amazing. Sales are currently 23% above projections," says General Manager Amy Tabor. The new location is perfectly situated in close proximity to a school, the university and the state capitol, and is in a pleasantly walkable and bikeable area.

2022-23: Two record years culminating trend of increasing the diversity in our lending

Since our inception Shared Capital has been committed to supporting cooperatives owned by and serving all community members. But, with the evolution of our member co-ops and board membership, combined with siginificant overall growth, recent years have shown dramatic positive growth in ownership by diverse and marginalized communities. Each of the past two years have doubled the previous year's lending to co-ops owned by people of color.

2016-2023 Diversity of Lending

Our new Public Offering is devoted to cooperatives

Now, more of us who want to can invest in Shared Capital Shares (preferred equity) and Shared Capital Notes (debt). These investments support the sustainable growth of our loan fund and help leverage other capital for impact. All investors are welcome, with a minimum of $500.

These options offer a financial return to investors while providing access to capital for cooperatives. By helping generate grassroots community wealth, they build social, economic, racial, and environmental justice.

The DPO has gained 150+ new investors and more than $5 million in new investments to support cooperatives.
